

6516208492.txt

Please leave my satellite radio alone, it provides services i cannot get from regular radio. I am a ham operator so i know the value of the radio spectrum and the limited space available for big broadcastors is full of chatter, i feel not worthy of my listening and one person cannot change a station. So they program for the masses. Thank you for listening Mckinley Kilburn